Article 15. The report of the special committee on the matter of location of fire department headquarters makes no mention of a particular site and no sum of money for the purchase of a lot is suggested. In view of this situation and of the fact that if the plans of the school committee for the future arrangement of the school buildings in this village are adopted, the town will have in the Kimball school lot an ideal location for an up-to-date building for this department, we deem it inexpedient at this time to negotiate for the purchase of additional land, and recommend that no action be taken under this article.

Report of Forest Warden

Needham, Mass., December 31st, 1912.

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen:

Gentlemen:—I herewith submit my fourth annual report as Forest Warden.

The policy of establishing a fire patrol in the wooded sections of the town at certain seasons, has been further proven most satisfactory during the twelve months past. More than twice the cost of maintaining this patrol was saved in the expense which inevitably would have been incurred, by calls upon the Fire Department.

I desire to emphasize the fact that there were no calls for fire during the year on account of the burning of rubbish.

The requirements of the statutes regarding the posting of the law were duly complied with.

Believing the effectiveness of the law is only in its rigid enforcement, I have fulfilled the duties of my office in this respect to the best of my ability, with the assistance of nine deputies appointed in the various sections of the town.

The number of permits issued from this office during the year is 754, more than twice the number issued in any previous year.

Extracts from Massachusetts Forest Laws.

1. Setting fire to growing wood or timber of another.

Punishable by a fine of not more than $100.00 or by imprisonment for not more than six months. R. L. 208, Section 7.

2. Letting fire escape. Negligently allowing fire to escape from your own land to adjoining land. Punishable by a fine of not more than $250.00, also liable for damages R. L. 208, Sections 8-9.

3. Forest Wardens not liable to arrest for trespass. Wardens, Deputies and Assistants, not liable for trespass while acting in the reasonable performance of their duties. Acts 1907, 475, Section 6.

4. Permit to light fire in the open. In any city or in towns so voting a permit from the Forest Warden must be obtained to start a fire between March 1 and December 1. The only exception being that debris from fields, gardens or orchards, or leaves and brush from yards may be burned on ploughed fields by the owners thereof, their agents or lessees, but in every case such fire shall be at least two hundred feet distant from any forest or sprout lands, and at least fifty feet distant from any building, and provided further that persons above eighteen years of age may maintain a fire for a reasonable purpose upon sandy or barren land, if the fire is enclosed within rocks, metal or other non-inflammable material, but in every case such fire shall be properly attended until extinguished. Violation of this provision—punishable by a fine of not more than $100.00 or imprisonment for not more than one month or by both such fine and imprisonment. Acts 1908, 209, Section 1, as amended by Chapter 244, Acts 1911.

5. Arrest without warrant. The Forest Warden or any of his deputies may arrest any persons setting or maintaining a fire in violation of the provisions of this Act. Acts 1908, 209, Section 4, as amended by Chapter 244, Acts 1911.

6. Penalty for refusing aid. Any person between the ages of 18 and 50 years who refuses, without good cause, to assist the Forest Warden or his Deputies in the fighting of forest fires is liable to a fine of not less than $5.00 or more than $100.00. L. R. 32, Section 21; 1907, 475, Section 3.

7. Disturbing notices. Whoever wilfully tears down or destroys any notice posted under the provisions of this Act shall be punished by a fine of $10.00. Acts 1907, 475, Section 7.

Respectfully submitted,

H. H. UPHAM,
Forest Warden.

Report of Fire Department

Needham, Mass., December 31st, 1912.

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen:

Gentlemen:—I herewith submit the twenty-seventh annual report of the Needham Fire Department:

There has been a total of twenty-one alarms of fire during the past year, of which twelve were bell alarms, one a test alarm, one a false alarm and nine so-called still alarms; the latter by telephone for grass and brush fires.

So far as I have been able to discover the causes of the fires are as follows:

Sparks from locomotive	5
Defective chimney	2
Oil stove	1
Incendiary	4
Overtured stove	1
Sparks from forge	1
Unknown	5
(Burning rubbish)	None

There were six fires in buildings, fourteen in grass and woods and one in hay stack.

This department has made demands on the N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R. Co., who has made settlement with the Town Treasurer for all claims to date, amounting to $53.50, and $6.50 has been collected from individuals.

The amount of hose laid during the year is 2,000 feet; ladders used 120 feet; chemicals used 48 gallons.

The membership of the department is fifty-three, including the Board of Engineers.

All necessary repairs to apparatus and equipment has had such due attention as to maintain the same in first class condition.

It was absolutely necessary to shingle Station 2, at Needham Heights, and make other minor repairs.

I desire to urge the necessity of new and modern fire stations in place of those already established, but totally inadequate for present needs. Progress in this respect may be seen in all the departments of the town, except that of the Fire Department, and there should be no further delay in meeting the needs of the present and anticipating those of the future.

I would recommend the establishing of a fire alarm box at the junction of Kimball and Grant streets. This section has recently become a thickly settled part, the nearest box to which is at present a third of a mile away.

Respectfully submitted,

H. H. UPHAM,
Chief of Fire Department.

Report of Superintendent of Fire Alarm

Needham, Mass., January 4, 1913.

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen:

Gentlemen:—The present condition of the fire alarm system is very good as during the past year many changes and repairs have been made, and with the exception of a few miles of un-insulated wire the entire system is in fine shape. On account of the big increase in the use of electricity and telephone service it is necessary to continually keep changing and repairing the different fire alarm circuits.

I would recommend the installation of one extra fire alarm box, also that two or three extra tappers be installed in some of the firemen's houses who are too far away to hear the large bells.

For these additions and the maintenance of the system it would require an appropriation of about one thousand ($1,000) dollars.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLARD B. COOKSON,

Superintendent of Fire Alarm.

Report of Superintendent for Suppression of Gypsy and Brown Tail Moths

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen:

Gentlemen:—I herewith submit the report of the Moth Department for the year ending December 31, 1912. While the condition of the residential districts in Needham continues good, that of the woodlands is constantly becoming worse. During the past summer there has been serious stripping of the foliage over quite a large area, this being especially noticeable in the Needhandale district, and in the western part of the town, and to a lesser extent in the Upper Falls district.

Under the present conditions and with the funds now available this condition is bound to become worse from year to year unless the owners awaken to the danger which threatens them.

Sometimes property of this kind is of such low value that the expense necessary to clean it is not justified by the resulting benefit.

In such cases the only practicable method of handling the pest is to form a protective belt around the infestation by thinning out the worthless growth and spraying to keep the moths from spreading.

Occasionally owners of infested property are much more solicitous concerning the property of their neighbors than their own, but the owners of many of the larger estates are helping us in many ways.

Where persons doing their own work in a thorough manner are threatened by infestation from adjoining property we are anxious to help them in any way possible.

Usually a belt one hundred feet wide properly thinned and sprayed is a sufficient protection.

It has been our policy to spray roadsides in badly infested districts to prevent distribution of the pest by passing vehicles.

To do thorough work in the woods requires much larger funds than have been available and, should the introduction of parasites and diseases prove unsuccessful, destruction of the woods is inevitable unless the owners make some effort themselves.

Work of this kind must be done very carefully and systematically as at least ninety per cent. of the egg clusters of the gypsy moth must be destroyed to prevent an increase, and a decrease can be insured only by destroying a larger percentage.

Where owners hire the work done it should be inspected by the local superintendent before payment is made, to insure that the work has been properly done.

Such inspection costs the owner nothing and may save useless expense.

Instructions to this effect are printed plainly at the bottom of the notice sent annually to each land owner and yet owners often fail to inform us when they have had the work done.

The introduction of the various parasites and diseases by the national and state government promises well in some cases.

One especially, a large predaceous beetle, has spread very rapidly, having been found in all parts of the town during the past season.

The disease known as wilt, several plantings of which were made last spring, apparently did very good work, but has not been under observation long enough to justify a positive opinion.

Respectfully submitted,

E. E. RILEY,

Local Superintendent.

Report of the Tree Warden

Spraying for the elm leaf beetle was impeded by much windy weather during the season and the results in some cases were rather unsatisfactory.

A few young trees were set out in the spring. These were checked in growth by the dryness of the season, but most of them are now in fairly good condition.

As much trimming was done as our funds would allow after the spraying had been attended to.

There is still much of this to be done, both in removing dead wood from the larger trees and in cutting the lower branches which often interfere seriously with the use of our streets and sidewalks.

Some complaint has been made about the trees obscuring the lights on some of our streets.

While this might be avoided by trimming in some cases, in others it would seem more practicable to lower the lights a little, as the high trimming necessary on some of the trees would seriously disfigure them.

Much trouble has been experienced during storms by the extinguishing of the lights when the wires rubbed on branches of the trees through which they passed.

On this account the Edison Company did considerable trimming during the fall and early winter.

This work results in more or less mutilation, however carefully it is done, but seems unavoidable unless the whole system of construction is changed.

E. E. RILEY, Tree Warden.

Report of Park Commissioners

To the Citizens of the Town of Needham:—

At the March meeting the town appropriated $500 for the establishment and maintenance of a bath house at Charles River Park on South Street. In accordance with this provision the commissioners erected a suitable house with six separate compartments for dressing rooms, constructed a large raft for bathers and employed a special officer in attendance.

Two afternoons a week were reserved for girls for bathing, at other times boys were allowed.

During the year 549 girls and women, and 1,257 men and boys have used the bath house. We feel that this has proven a success and warrants further improvements.

In addition to the care of smaller parks we have laid out the Thorpe Memorial Park which will be completed the coming spring. We recommend a small appropriation for triangles, namely at Herds Corner and Nehoiden Street and Central Avenue, also that the town make suitable compensation to Glover Hospital Trustees for land and house at corner of Central and Great Plain Avenues, known as Glovers Corner, and this land be turned over to Park Commissioners for a park, thus beautifying this approach to the town.

We ask the co-operation of the citizens in endeavoring to beautify our town. We solicit suggestions.

C. W. PEASE.
WILLIAM LEE.
T. J. CROSSMAN.

Report of Superintendent of Streets

Needham, Mass., January 1, 1913.

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen:

Dear Sirs:—I herewith present the report of the Superintendent of Streets for the year ending December 31, 1912:

On May 8, Mr. Oscar H. Starkweather resigned to take a similar position in Wakefield, and the present incumbent took charge May 27th.

The work done under the direction of my predecessor consisted largely of cleaning and shaping roadways throughout the town, and patching the same, and tarviating the surfaces of several streets.

I submit below a summary of the work done since I took charge of the department:

Road Preservatives.

Under this head, two kinds of material were used to preserve the surfaces and lay the dust—Tarvia B and Tass-coil No. 2.

The tables below show the streets treated with Tarvia B during the year and also those sprinkled with the Tass-coil:

Tarvia B.Tasscoil.

The demand for dust preventives was far in excess of previous years, and I recommend a more general use of both Tarvia and Tasscoil next season.

Street Cleaning.

More work has been done on the cleaning of streets than ever before, and the excellent appearance of our streets justifies the outlay of the $1,537.09 which were spent since I took charge of the work.

Under this head I include the cleaning of catchbasins, and at this time they are in good condition for the winter.

Drainage.

There are many localities that have no surface drains at all, and others where there are basins without outlets.

I recommend that these places receive attention this year:

May Street at Highland Avenue.

Pickering Street at May Street.

Highland Avenue at Town Hall.

Chapel Street at Town Hall.

Union Street.

Rosemary Hill Street.

Hunnewell Street at the Park.

A main drain 10 and 12 inches in diameter was laid in Great Plain Avenue from Roger's to Warren Street and in Warren Street to the existing drain in Dedham Avenue, a total of 1,880 feet in length. Manholes and seven catchbasins were built in connection with it, so that the entire district is quite free from water. The total cost was $1,338.13, a saving of $161.87 out of the original estimate of $1,500.

The outlet from the Hunnewell Street drain was discontinued on account of damage done to the N. Y., N. H. & H. Railroad bed, and a new 10 inch pipe laid in Highland Avenue from Hunnewell to Lee Street to take care of the water formerly emptying on the railroad track. This work cost $292.67. The old 12 inch pipes were taken up from Howland Street and a new culvert 24 inches in diameter built at a cost of $45.75.

Several drainage brooks should be cleaned out this year in order to insure us against flooded streets.

The Chestnut Street drain was found to be badly choked with roots and mud and it was relaid from Oak Street to Locke's driveway. The remainder was cleaned by using section-rods and water pressure, and it ought to take the surface water from the square more readily.

Street Signs.

Signs are needed on all of our streets and your superintendent has made arrangements for installing them this year.

Town Survey.

A general survey of the town should be made, and a system of lines and grades established thereby. This is a much-needed thing, as it prevents mistakes in erecting buildings, and would be of assistance to property owners in general.

Street Construction.

The streets built this year are as follows: Highland Avenue from May to Rosemary, built of tar macadam, 4,444 square yards in area, and costing $.447 per square yard, a total of $1,986.39. The use of dynamite greatly cheapened the cost of obtaining gravel during the latter part of the season. Webster Street from Gordon Terrace to Great Plain Avenue was resurfaced with gravel. The 1,916 square yards were done at a cost of $140.75 or $.073 per square yard. Nehoiden Street from Great Plain Avenue to beyond the cemetery was resurfaced with gravel. The work covered 5,830 square yards, and cost $.208 per square yard, at total of $1,212.92. There is a large amount of traffic on this street and it should be Tarviated this year. South Street from Charles River Street to the bridge received a coat of gravel averaging 10 inches in depth, the cost being $212.12 or $.181 for each of 1,166 square yards. Mellen Street was excavated to a depth of 12 inches and rebuilt with rocks and gravel, making it a first class roadway from Webster Street over 400 feet westerly. There were 1,333 square yards built at $.342 per square yard, total of $456.35. Charles River Street was macadamized from Central Avenue down to Pierce's, an area of 1,904 square yards, costing $712.24, or $.374 per square yard.

This year macadam should be built in Great Plain Avenue, Dedham Avenue and Highland Avenue (from May to Chapel) as these streets are main arteries and are in bad condition. Many others, including School, Warren, May, Pickering, Central Avenue, Webster, Maple, West and Hillside Avenue should be repaired, preferably with crushed stone.

Bridges.

Kendrick's Bridge is dangerous and should be rebuilt without delay. The South Natick Bridge was repaired, but is in need of a thorough overhauling.

Chestnut Street and West Street bridges were rebuilt and are now safe from travel.

Sidewalks.

In accordance with orders passed by the Board, I had granolithic sidewalks laid in Warren Street, at Wye's and Fuller's; Great Plain Avenue at Zepfler's and Highland Avenue from Rosemary Street to the walk laid last year.

The abutters and the town each paid one-half the cost or $884.78.

This year I plan to build granolithic by town labor, as it can be done cheaper that way. The money available will then accomplish more work.

Snow Removal.

There has been but one storm this winter and no serious trouble was caused by it.

Crusher.

The new crusher authorized at the March town meeting was delivered in June and was used in building Highland Avenue. It gave satisfaction and can be used more extensively this year.

Recapitulation.

The value of work done under my supervision is as follows:

Construction	$4,720 77	Dust Prevention	$2,828 27
Drainage	1,751 05	Sidewalks	1,246 83
Patching	1,140 73	Snow Removal	252 32
Cleaning	1,537 09	Stone crusher (new)	2,056 80
General	1,952 67

In conclusion I wish to express a hope that the spirit of co-operation existing between the department and the citizens will continue to the end that the best interests of everyone may be served.

I desire to thank the Board of Selectmen for their very kind and helpful advice and suggestions, and to thank the employees for their loyalty and interest in the work.

Respectfully submitted,

T. PARKER CLARKE,

Superintendent of Streets.

Report of the Board of Selectmen and Overseers of the Poor

For the Year 1912.

To the Inhabitants of the Town of Needham:—

We herewith submit our annual report for the year 1912, together with our recommendations for the current year:

Superintendent of Streets.

On May 8th, 1912, Mr. Oscar W. Starkweather resigned as Superintendent of Streets to take a similar position in Wakefield, and on May 22nd Mr. T. Parker Clarke was appointed to take his place.

Bridges.

The bridges are in a safe and suitable condition with the exception of Kendrick's Bridge, which will have to be rebuilt in the near future. Day's Bridge on Chestnut Street has been rebuilt and Pierce's Bridge on Charles River Street has been replanked and repaired.

Highways.

The increased use of automobiles and motor trucks has seriously affected the surface of many of our important streets, especially those of gravel construction, and the present appropriation is entirely inadequate to keep our streets in proper shape to withstand this increased wear. The condition of Great Plain Avenue, Dedham Avenue, Greendale Avenue, portions of Charles River Street, the north and south portions of Webster Street, West Street and a part of Central Avenue is such that new construction will be required.

We have had during the past year repeated requests for oil as a dust layer, which we have been in many cases unable to grant owing to the limited appropriation. We recommend the extensive use of Tarvia as a street preservative, as well as a dust layer on all hard surfaced roads.

New quarters will have to be provided for housing the Street Department apparatus. Our streets are inadequately supplied with signs and much new fencing will have to be put in during the coming year.

Drainage.

A great deal of care and attention has been paid to drainage during the past year, as proper drainage is essential to the construction of a well laid street.

Sidewalks.

There is a constantly increasing demand for sidewalk construction for which abutters pay half, and if petitions for such work are to be granted, a large increase in this appropriation will be necessary. Repairs will also have to be made on many of our existing sidewalks.

Care and Support of the Poor.

Applications for aid have been promptly investigated and attended to.

Board of Health.

At the last January meeting the town voted to accept the act establishing a separate Board of Health. The town as a whole has had no serious epidemics.

Appropriations Recommended.

We submit the following estimates for the year 1913:

The only event of importance in the history of the library during the year 1912 is the resignation of Miss Ruth Walker, the librarian, and the choice of Miss Esther C. Johnson in her place. Miss Johnson is a graduate of Wellesley College and has taken a course in the library school of Simmons College. She succeeded Miss Walker in September.

It is often said by persons who value education that it is unfortunate that so much time is given to reading fiction, a large per cent. of it inferior, and that instructive books are neglected, but it is difficult for any librarian to do more than influence to a limited extent the public taste. In our library the demand for fiction is constant, and the trustees attempt, with the valuable assistance of Mrs. Dunn and of individuals connected with larger libraries, to obtain the best, but the number of really good novels is small. We are sometimes told that there are plenty of good ones, but that is not so. The "best sellers" are usually short-lived, and some of them are written by people who are neither wise nor practical. Too many of these books deal with unpleasant social problems, such as divorce, and the heroes and heroines of these stories are apt to be not of the highest type. We find that if a novel is strictly moral and conventional it may be so dull and so poorly written that few of our readers care for it. To select twenty volumes of new fiction worth reading is comparatively easy, but when two hundred, or more, are required it is another matter. This condition is recognized by all who are responsible for the purchase of books for libraries. The trustees and the librarian will welcome any suggestions from persons interested in good literature, whether it be fiction or non-fiction. By establishing more liberal rules we hope to increase the usefulness of our libraries.

Respectfully submitted for the Trustees,

GEORGE K. CLARKE, Chairman.

There is an apparent difference between the financial report of library trustees and my figures as above. This is caused by their having passed some bills through their records which were not received until my records for the year had been closed. There is also a difference of $23.57 between expenditures of Selectmen's Department and above figures. Under Town Hall Salaries the amount should be $25.00 greater, one payment to Mr. Horrocks of this amount being omitted, and under Highways there was a refund of $1.43 from Bay State Belting Co. This makes the total expenditures of Selectmen's Department $63,505.55 instead of $63,481.98 as shown in their financial statement.

Report of the Superintendent

To the School Committee of Needham:—

I beg leave to submit to you my second annual report of the public schools. The usual statistics and those given for the first time in the report of last year are incorporated in the appendix.

Changes in the Teaching Corps.

In one school year there have been eighteen new teachers employed, practically one-half of the teaching force. Not all of these vacant positions have resulted from the resignation of teachers; some have occurred because the committee have desired them and saw that they were necessary for the best interests of the schools; others have been new places due to the growth of our schools; but the great majority of vacancies have occurred because teachers saw a few dollars of financial betterment in other places. There is nothing more harmful to a school system than a constant change of teachers. Schools may have ordinary teachers with a leaning towards poor and yet, if there is no break in the teaching force, if the phalanx moves along with slow but steady stride, there is progress. On the other hand the schools may be equipped with the best of teachers, they may do brilliant work for a few weeks, and then, if they take the wings of the morning and fly away charmed by the sweet call of $50 more of salary, what is the result? A new corps of teachers, a new regime of work, and confusion and discouragement for the pupils. To gain a few paltry dollars or a little better position the teachers have sacrificed days and weeks in the education of the children and perhaps placed such a pall of discouragement upon them that they may be diverted from their course of education and from their proper position in life. The teacher gives too little consideration of the cost of her resignation to the forty pupils in her class. Because of this condition the school committee have thought it wise to have a strong contract with the teachers. In this contract the teacher binds herself to serve for the full year, if her health permits; if she resigns during the school year, she does so at a financial loss; if she resigns during the summer, having accepted her position for the next school year, she loses her last payment. The last provision prevents serious losses in July and August, when no teacher can be seen in the school room and it is only by chance that a good teacher is secured. At that time the superintendent cannot ascertain except from hearsay or recommendation whether the candidate who applies is a good teacher or not. It is well known that recommendations cannot be trusted to any great extent and that it is a pretty poor teacher that cannot secure a fair recommendation. Therefore, the committee have acted wisely in preventing the loss of teachers during the summer vacation. This last summer only one teacher broke his contract and in all probability he would not have resigned, if the contract system had been long enough in force so that he would have lost his last payment. It is not the desire of the committee or the superintendent that the teacher shall lose any part of her hard-earned salary, but they must protect the children of the town against the teacher who is here today and gone tomorrow. The committee with a due consideration of the high cost of living intend to pay every teacher all that she is worth to our school system. In return the committee expect to secure a permanent body of trained teachers who are faithful to every duty, who are active and earnest in their work, who are students of progress, who are giving their lives to the education and to the advancement moral and intellectual of our children.

The Teachers.

In spite of the many changes in the teaching force the teachers as a whole are becoming welded into a more compact body of earnest, faithful workers. They realize that if our schools are to be brought to a high standard of excellence, the teachers must advance as a unit in each grade; they must constantly keep in touch with the work of previous years; they must move as a solid phalanx in the required work and not be tempted to lose time in the side paths of education; they must make every moment count, not only of their own time, but of the children's as well; they must carefully arrange and prepare their work so that they can do it with the least expenditure of effort and the greatest results in the education of the child; they must teach the child to economize his time for study so that he may know how to prepare his lessons quickly and thoroughly; they must arouse in the hearts of the children an active interest in education and an enthusiasm for it; they must discover the natural tendency of the child's mind so as to direct him in the right way to make the most of his abilities and become a good citizen. This is a strong program for our teachers, but one that they are determined to carry out.

A meeting for each grade is held every month of the school year, eight meetings every four weeks. In these meetings the work is arranged for the next four weeks, there is free discussion of the difficult problems of individual needs, the best methods of retaining what is already learned, and the wisest way of keeping attendance and interest to the highest level. What is arranged in these meetings is carried out in the school room. In addition, each teacher is keeping a plan book of her work, a daily record of what she does in each study.

The teachers propose to look after the interests of every slow and backward pupil; they intend to co-operate with the parents to do everything possible for such a child. They will visit the homes and will give such assistance as time and strength will permit. In turn we expect the parents to co-operate with the teachers in sending the child punctually and regularly to school, in arousing enthusiasm for study at home, in seeing that the required amount of work is done at home, and in being loyal in their support of the schools.

The Field of Study.

This field has become so broad at the present time that it is difficult for educators to keep the course of study within reasonable limits and the tendency at the present time is to make the course so broad that the child gets a little smattering of many subjects and knows no subject well. We forget that the education of the child goes on through his whole life. It is our business to give him the tools of education and teach him how to use them; then, he will employ these tools in his daily work and in his reading at home. Public libraries are scattered all over this country and even the small communities have the benefit of them. Here in these treasure houses is a wealth of knowledge and all that can read may continue their education. It is for the public schools to teach the children how to read and what to read and then the public libraries can extend education in almost any line. Therefore, the schools should emphasize thoroughness in a few subjects so that the child with this exact and usable knowledge may be able to advance in education by means of his own efforts.

The Children.

It goes without saying that we have a body of children as kindly and lovable as can be found in any community. Nowhere can children be found that are more courteous and of better disposition; but it is not to be assumed because our children are so pleasant, because they always greet us with a smile and are ready to do us a favor that the problem of their education is slight. Every adult who has acquired a small modicum of knowledge or who has won success in his business or profession knows that he has secured his position by concentration and hard work. These characteristics of success our children have yet to learn. For education means solid work and there is no short cut to it; it means long hours and a centered mind; it means accuracy and correct reasoning. Our teachers intend to secure these conditions with the children by gradual steps and they desire the co-operation of every parent to arouse enthusiastic ambition in the heart of the child to make the most of every ability God has given him and to be willing to put forth faithful and continuous effort in the training of his mind.

High School.

The high school is rapidly increasing in number of pupils. Last school year the number was 142, this year 162; and by the most careful and conservative estimate the number for the next school year will be 180-190 pupils. This number will tax the seating capacity of the school to its limit. More chairs will have to be placed in the hall for the morning exercises and for the singing lesson by the music teacher; in each of these exercises the hall will be completely filled. In the recitation rooms there are desks for about 200 pupils. It has been the custom in the school to reserve one recitation room for a study room, where pupils at periods when they have no recitations may have a quiet place for study without any disturbance. All of the other rooms are used by teachers in recitations. This custom of having a quiet study room for all had to be slightly modified this year, inasmuch as no one room will hold all of the study pupils at one time and many are obliged to sit in rooms where recitations are going on. This is unfortunate, for it is a serious handicap in the concentration of thought to have conversation and discussion of interesting topics taking place where children are required to study. The next school year on account of the rapid growth of the school study pupils will have to sit in every recitation room and will probably fill them. This means that in a few years the school building will not be large enough to receive all of the pupils desiring a high school education and the town will be obliged to add to their present building or to construct a new and larger one. At that time the building should be made large enough for the future growth of the school.

The corps of the teachers was almost entirely changed at the end of the last school year; five out of the seven teachers are new this year. This circumstance means new policies and a new regime. It takes several weeks for the teachers to become acquainted with the pupils, their dispositions, their aptitude for work, and their responsiveness to instruction; on the other hand the pupils have to learn the new methods of the teachers and adapt themselves to them. However, it has taken but a very short time this year for the school to adapt itself to new conditions and to settle down to regular and productive labor. The teachers are to be congratulated on the fine spirit and good discipline of the school; it only remains for them to develop in the hearts of the pupils a love of study, a feeling of duty in the careful preparation of their lessons, and a realization that the curriculum in the high school requires an eight-hour day of honest study. The teachers see the needs of the school and will do all in their power to secure good scholarship among their pupils. They will visit their homes; they will show the parents the necessity of having their children in school every day and promptly at the opening of school; they will request the parents to give their children a quiet and comfortable room for study for three hours per day; they will ask them to take charge of these hours of study and see that they are as regular as the school day and that the study is as honest and concentrated as if the children were under wages depending upon the number of pieces done; they will talk with the parents for taking the children from school for trivial causes or allowing them to work for pay in the afternoons and evenings of school days, unless the financial circumstances of the home demand it. The child in the high school has enough to do to keep up his eight hour day of faithful study without being required to put in three or four hours of manual labor under pay. If this manual labor is necessary in the support of the family, the child should be relieved of a part of his studies and should take a longer time to finish his high school course. The parent ought to disabuse his mind of the notion that the high school education can be poured into the child as water into an empty vessel during the five hour day; they should get a clear conception that the education of the child in the high school requires hard work on the child's part for as many hours as he ought to work per day. Our high school can be made ideal, but the working out of this ideal does not depend entirely upon the teachers; the children and their parents have responsibilities in the matter. If these are met, the school authorities guarantee that our high school will become ideal in character and scholarship. At the present time in the school there is a strong desire for higher education and we expect to see this feeling increase. Of the class of 1912, 20% went on to higher institutions.

In the basement of the building the school committee have fitted up a convenient and well equipped room for lunches. Mrs. Groce, who has received instructions at Simmons College in the domestic arts, had charge of the lunch counter and served the pupils with nourishing and suitable food at the noon intermission. The lunch counter met a long felt need in the school. Heretofore, the children have been obliged in all weathers to go down town for their lunches and to make their choice from food in many cases not nourishing and in some cases harmful to the digestion and to school work. Mrs. Groce supplied a liberal quantity of good food at a reasonable price, but was unable to make the lunches pay her for her trouble and gave them up.

During the summer vacation the heating and ventilation of the building has been renovated. The two difficulties were the lack of proper draught to the furnace and the lack of ventilation and heat in the two smaller rooms. These defects, we believe, have been entirely remedied and there will be no trouble about heating the rooms in the coldest of weather and the pupils will have sufficient supply of fresh air in the typewriting and shorthand rooms. Another year the inside of the building should be painted, the walls calcimined, and some repairs made upon the plastering; the desks and chairs in three rooms should be smoothed down, dressed over and varnished.

The equipment for the chemical and physical laboratories is small and getting out of date. Next year there will need to be considerable expended to bring this department of the school to a condition that will enable the teacher to fit our young men and women for the best technical colleges.

Elementary Schools.

Our elementary schools in almost all parts of the town are having a steady growth in numbers, the Kimball school has increased 25 over last year and the other schools correspondingly. To meet the needs of this growth in our schools, since August 1911, a new room has been opened at the Harris school, another at the Eliot school, and another at the Avery school, a portable school has been built in the Dwight school yard, another in the Kimball school yard, five new schools in all. This shows a very rapid growth in school population; moreover, in consequence of the amount of building that is being done year by year and because houses are sold or rented as fast as they are built, the town bids fair to have a still more rapid growth in school census and the question of building new school houses will have to be met. At present none of the school rooms are overcrowded; some are full, every seat being taken, but all of the children are comfortably housed and seated except in one building. Of this matter I will speak later under another heading.

The grammar department of the Harris school consists now of four grades, the 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th grades, a reduction of one grade; in the Parker school the number of grades has been reduced to four, so that now with a smaller number of children and fewer classes the work can be made on a par with the schools in town. It is the wish and purpose of the committee to give the children living on the borders of the town as good an education as those living in the more thickly populated districts and, as soon as the numbers demand it, a portable school will be placed in the Harris yard and then no more than three grades will have to be taught by one teacher.

All of our grade teachers with schools of normal size are carrying along their work with earnestness and enthusiasm. Last March a course of study giving complete details of the work in every subject taught was prepared by the superintendent and the teachers after careful consideration for several months and now forms the chart for all of the work in the grades.

The Palmer method of business writing was adopted by the committee and introduced into every school on January 1, 1912; such was the enthusiasm that the teachers and pupils put into the course that in $5\frac{1}{2}$ months great advancement was made by all of the pupils and 51 of them won the Palmer diploma for professional writing. These 51 pupils were divided as follows: 32 in the commercial department of the High school, 7 in the 9th grade of the Kimball school, 7 in the 9th grade of the Avery school, 2 in the 8th grade and 1 in the 7th grade of the same school, and 2 in the 8th grade of the Harris school. Our plan for this school year is to have every teacher a professional penman, having received a teacher's certificate before the end of the year, to have all of the pupils in the commercial department of the high school good penmen and using the arm movement freely in all of their writing, to have almost all of the pupils of the 9th grade with the Palmer diploma for proficiency in business writing when they graduate in June, and to have all of the pupils in the other grades of the elementary schools up to the required standard of the course of study and writing with ease and a good movement. This ideal is not a distant mirage, but will be a reality in June.

In arithmetic there is room for great improvement. Our children do not reason well in the problems, nor are they accurate in the mechanical work. Each of these faults is fatal to correct results. The superintendent and teachers are entering upon a steady and progressive campaign to eliminate these faults. The work is carefully planned in each grade according to the mental power of the pupils, reviews are constantly kept up, a record is kept of all of the pupils that have done absolutely correct work for each day, and when a pupil has had 40 days in which his daily work has been correct, he will receive a dark blue button bearing upon its face in gilt letters this inscription: "40 perfect days in arithmetic." After 40 more perfect days he will receive another button inscribed: "80 perfect days in arithmetic." In addition to this the superintendent will give two examinations in arithmetic, one in January and the other in June. These examinations will cover all of the work done by the pupils during the year and previous years, as far as the length of the examination will permit, and every pupil that receives 80% or above in these examinations and holds at the end of the year the "80 perfect day button" will receive a certificate of proficiency in arithmetic for the year. This simple method is arousing strong enthusiasm for correct reasoning and accurate work and we expect to graduate our pupils from the grammar school in a few years with the ability to do the ordinary mathematical calculations satisfactory to the business man, and the daily newspaper will have no just cause to complain of the weakness of our grammar school graduates in this respect.

In reading good work has been done by the school for many years. Close attention is given to enunciation and expression. The children are taught to open their mouths and read with distinct articulation and with a good voice; they are taught to get the thought as they read and reproduce it; they are taught to understand and appreciate good literature. During the month of March the superintendent hears every child read in the school system and in this examination each child is given the opportunity to show how closely he has followed the thought read and how well he can reproduce it. In addition, the teachers are giving considerable attention to silent reading, since the most of the reading of the adult is to himself. After reading silently an article or a paragraph the pupils are tested to see if they get the major part of the thought. The teachers are also bringing into their class room many interesting articles to be read aloud by some pupil or pupils to the class.

Spelling has been neglected in some school systems for a number of years. It was thought by some educators that the spelling book was not a necessity in the school room and in some cases a positive evil. This condition was due to the fact that some years ago the spelling books did not contain a well selected vocabulary and for a time was banished from many school rooms and in its place the teacher put upon the board words selected from her limited vocabulary and that of the pupils', and words that were misspelled in the written exercises of the children. It was soon found that under this system children were leaving school very poor spellers; and the spelling book was brought back into the school room much improved by the criticism of teachers. Now spelling has its proper time and place in the school room, because the business world has demanded that the graduates of the grammar schools be spellers of fair ability. In our schools we have a system of progressive spellers from the first grade to the ninth. The children have a definite amount of work to do each year and there are constant reviews of the previous lessons. A vocabulary is thus built up for the child that he will know how to spell and how to use with correct signification. This vocabulary is no hit or miss selection but made up of carefully graded and well chosen words. As far as possible the children are taught to spell phonetically and to use their memories only in words with difficult letter combinations.

In geography our plan is to teach a small and definite amount of carefully selected material and to review this enough so that the child may leave school with a fair knowledge of the physical features of the earth, the most important countries, their peoples, their business, and their civilization. Unnecessary details and facts that will be forgotten in a few days are omitted. In geography perhaps more than in any other study there is a tendency to go afield too far and require the child to memorize many facts that are unimportant and that will soon be forgotten. Our plan is to require a moderate amount of well digested matter thoroughly memorized and often reviewed, and to gather around this framework other material for discussion which the teacher has found interesting and valuable. No subject in the curriculum should be made dry to the children, but on the other hand no subject, no matter how fruitful, should be allowed to overload the children's minds and to make mental dyspeptics.

We have in United States history two text books, a primary book for the sixth grade and a more complete book for the seventh and eighth grades. Our text books still give too much prominence to wars, their causes and their effects. The catalogue of battles do not make history; but the thought, the character, the advancement of peoples and their adaptation of themselves to their environment. We should study the march of our civilization, the amalgamation of immigrants, the great questions of government, the rise of labor saving machinery, the growth of education, and the great moral questions of the day. We are facing as serious problems at the present time as the men of '61 and it is the duty of the schools to educate our children to know and respect our institutions and to be men and women of character ready to defend these institutions with their lives. The study of history and civil government, then, is not a question of memorizing a few facts, but of breeding in the hearts of the youth a vital knowledge of their country and a deep love for it.

In language we intend to give the children a practical knowledge. They will be taught to speak correctly with a vocabulary large enough to express in exact terms and in good form what they wish to say; they will be taught to write letters, composition, business forms, and business papers with good penmanship, with correct spelling, punctuation, and capitalization and with a careful arrangement of the thought; they will be taught to read, understand, appreciate and love good literature, and many of the beautiful gems will be memorized; they will be taught in grammar the basic principles and modifications so that they will know how to correct the mistakes in their own speech and be prepared to study foreign languages in the high school with greater ease and pleasure. In February the superintendent will examine the classes in language and in May in the technical grammar and in the mechanical details of composition.

In physiology we propose to give the children a fair knowledge of the elements of this subject and of hygiene by the careful reading and discussion of the Gulick series of physiologies in grades IV-VIII. In grade IX the subject becomes a regular study of the year and a good text book is fully digested. We believe that the knowledge and the care of the body is one of the most important studies in our curriculum and should not be neglected in any year of our graded course. In the ninth grade the superintendent will give two thorough examinations on the subject, one in December, the other in June.

A good course in nature study has been outlined by the teachers for each grade. This course will receive due attention as soon as the pupils have been worked up to grade in the essential studies.

As soon as our pupils become more proficient in arithmetic and are up to the requirements of our course, a half year will be given to the study of algebra in the ninth grade.

Music and Drawing.

The work of these departments is going along successfully under the able direction of the two supervisors, Miss Ellen H. Bartlett and Miss Florence L. Bean. We have two days of Miss Bartlett's time and all of Miss Bean's. Miss Bartlett is deeply interested in our children from her long acquaintance with them and finds a ready response to her instruction. She is doing much individual work and the classes are making steady advancement. The songs of the pupils at both grammar and high school graduations are much enjoyed by the people and reflect credit upon the instruction of the supervisor. Miss Bean spends two full days in the high school and is giving strong courses in freehand and mechanical drawing. These courses count in points for graduation according to the time given to them. Miss Bean visits the classes of the elementary schools once a week and here as in the high school there is steady advancement in the many phases of freehand drawing. The supervisor has also arranged a course in manual arts and this work will be gradually introduced into our graded schools and will lead up to more extended work when we have the building and the equipment for this purpose.

Health.

Our schools for the most part have been free from contagious diseases. This condition is due to the careful oversight of the school physicians and to the sanitary condition of the buildings. In parts of the town near the marshy land of the Charles River there are some cases of malaria in the schools. Our school physicians are attending to these cases and are preventing the spread of the disease. There are a few homes in town that seem never to be entirely free from pediculosis; children from these homes are liable to infect many children of their school room. The only solution is to keep children from such homes out of school until their heads are made clean. If the parents cannot or will not do this, the board of health with the assistance of the district nurse will go to the homes and attend to the matter. The teachers carefully examine the sight and hearing of all of their pupils in the fall term and make a tabulated report to the superintendent at the end of the year as required by law. The school physicians keep the disease record of each child and a summary of this record is made in the annual school report.

Truancy.

There are not a large number of cases of truancy in town. In some cases of continued absence of the child the causes are that the parents are careless or indifferent about the education of the child and keep him from school to work or for a pleasure trip or for some trivial cause. They do not know or forget that the state law requires that the child attend school every day that the school is in session, provided that the child's physical and mental condition is such that he is able to attend and that, if the child is kept out of school for five days for insufficient causes in a space of six months, the parent is liable to a conviction in court and a fine. There are a few parents in town that will have to be taught to respect the law. The committee have appointed an able truant officer in the person of Mr. A. J. Mathey. Since his appointment Mr. Mathey has been constantly guarding against poor attendance and has taken a few extreme cases to court. The parent is being educated as well as the child. The ideal condition to take care of truancy is to have a telephone in each school and to have the teachers report at once by telephone to the truant officer any suspicious cases of absence. Under such a system the parents would learn to be careful and the children would know that they could not play truant with impunity. The truant officer is looking after cases of tardiness and insisting upon the children being in school on time. Last school year there were over three thousand cases of tardiness in all of the schools, 740 in the high school alone. These numbers ought to be divided by 3 and even then there would be too many cases.

Buildings and Grounds.

The greater part of our school buildings are in fair condition. Of the necessary repairs in the high school I have already spoken. The poorest housing conditions are in the Kimball school. The rooms are made too small for the primary grades and for the seventh and eighth grades by the partitions dividing into two the original rooms. By this change the rooms became poorly lighted and ventilated and the children are seated too close together. Moreover, the southern wall of the building is slowly moving outward, so that now there is quite a crack between the floor and the wall; the floors throughout the building are badly worn. As soon as possible it would be advisable for the town to build a primary school on the Green lot and then remove the partitions in the Kimball school, lay new floors, repair the southern wall, and renovate the building throughout, making a first class grammar school out of it. In all probability, as soon as this is done, the portable building in the Kimball yard will be needed in the Harris district. The floors in the old Avery school are also badly worn and will need to be replaced in a few years. The iron fence at the old Avery school should be extended back to the rear line this next summer and some kind of hedge or fence should be placed around the Harris school yard. It would be well for the town to purchase the lot back of the Eliot yard for a playground for the children, while this lot can be purchased at a reasonable price. By the kindness of the owner the children are using this lot for their playground; without it they would have no chance to play their games.

There will be about 190 pupils in the high school the next school year. This condition will require an additional teacher. There is no available room for this teacher at the present time and the solution of the problem seems to be to place a temporary partition in the hall and divide it into two good rooms; one room could be used by the drawing teacher and the other room by the new teacher. By doing this the high school could be cared for, until there were larger numbers in the school and more teachers were required; then, an addition could be made to the building on the Oakland avenue side of sufficient size to accommodate the pupils for many years.

Finances.

The superintendent and committee are carrying on the finances of the schools as economically as it can be done and at the same time secure excellent results. We know that the people want good schools and that in order to secure good schools we must have first class teachers that remain with us and give us their best efforts for many years. To keep such teachers there must be salaries equal to their superior work. The committee recognize the need of our schools and have arranged a schedule of salaries so that we can retain excellent teachers. The pay roll of superintendent, teachers, janitors, truant officer, school physicians, and census enumerator will amount to $34,240 for the year 1913.

The premiums for the insurance upon the school buildings are now paid by the school department; this will make an additional expense of $1,100 for the next fiscal year. The price of coal has increased 50 cents per ton and last spring we paid $1.34 per ton more than we had paid during the winter. In spite of the high price of $7.50 per short ton at that time it seemed wise to the committee to put into the school bins sufficient to insure them against a shortage in case of a coal strike. In view of these facts and the uncertain conditions of the coal business we have estimated that $3,500 will be necessary for fuel for next year.

The other expenses are for transportation, for tuition paid to Wellesley, tuition to Newton Evening Industrial School, for janitors' supplies, and for miscellaneous expenses. A complete list of the estimates for 1913 is as follows:

Salaries	$34,240
Books and supplies	3,000
Fuel	3,500

Repairs	3,000
Transportation	900
Janitors' supplies	400
Insurance	1,100
Tuition	325
Miscellaneous	660

Total	$47,125
Dwight fund, tuition, school physicians	500

Appropriation needed from town $46,625

The amount is $4,000 more than the appropriation of last year and is caused by the increase in the number of teachers and the increase in salaries, by the advance in the price of coal, and by the fact that the school department now pays for the insurance of its buildings.

Conclusion.

In conclusion I wish to express my appreciation of all the efforts that have been put forth to improve our schools and especially do I appreciate the helpfulness and kindness of the school committee, who give their services "without money and without price" to the advancement of the schools.

Respectfully submitted,

A. H. KEYES,

Superintendent of Schools.

Needham, December 31, 1912.

Report of the School Physician

for the

HIGH, THE KIMBALL, THE HARRIS, AND THE
PARKER SCHOOLS.

To the School Committee of Needham:—

I herewith submit my annual report as school physician for the year 1912. The following table gives a report of the work and the number of cases of each disease:

Number of visits to High school	70
Number of visits to Kimball school	73
Number of visits to Harris school	35
Number of visits to Parker school	30
Number of physical examinations	552
Number of office examinations	50
Defective teeth	175
Adenoids	70
Enlarged tonsils	79
Mumps	35
Coryza	11
Curvature of the spine	2
Stomach trouble	4
Enlarged glands	3
Diphtheria	1

Skin disease	3
Injuries	5
Scalp disease	1
Cardiac disease	4
Tonsilitis	6
Pulmonary disease	1
Pediculosis	3
Nervous disease	1
Congenital paralysis	1
Otorrhoea	1
Ivy poisoning	1
Ringworm	1

During the year there was a slight epidemic of mumps in the Kimball building, principally confined to the second and sixth grades. Pupils were excluded from school, until all possible danger of infection was removed.

Notice has been sent to the parents in all cases of illness or of physical defects, and they have generally endeavored to have these defects removed as far as possible.

Respectfully submitted,

ALBERT M. MILLER, M. D.

Report of the School Physician

for the

AVERY, THE ELIOT, AND THE DWIGHT
SCHOOLS.

To the School Committee of Needham:—

I herewith submit my annual report as school physician of the Avery, the Eliot, and the Dwight schools. The following table gives a report of my work and of the number of cases of each disease:

Number of visits	140
Number of physical examinations	420
Number of office examinations	60
Number of vaccinations	6
Defective sight	21
Defective hearing	8
Defective teeth	229
Hypertrophied tonsils	66
Adenoids	66
Tonsilitis	1
Mumps	2
Malaria	28
Influenza	8
Skin disease	1

Cardiac disease	5
Nervous disease	1
Pediculosis	40
Injuries	2

It is probable that many cases of absence reported as bad colds were cases of influenza. There has been a reduction in the number of cases of malaria of the previous year from 66 in 1911 to 28 in 1912. Many cases of defective teeth which were considered last year as due to natural decay have been included in my list of defective teeth this year and have been so reported to the parents. If pediculosis, a preventable disease, is to be eradicated from the schools, the co-operation of the parents must be manifested to a greater degree in the future than it has in the past. I wish to acknowledge the valuable service of the district nurse, Miss Berry, in the treatment of this disease. There have been no epidemics of influenza or bad colds, which is the principle cause of absence from school. I found the schools in very fair hygienic condition.

Respectfully submitted,
WILLIAM MITCHELL, M. D.

Tune — Juanita

Now as we gather,
 Thinking o'er the years just past,
 Fond mem'ries linger,
 Memories that last.
 Let the happy school days,
 Full of hope and full of cheer,
 And the friendships formed here,
 Be forever dear.

CHORUS — Dear old Needham High School,
 Now to thee our song we raise;
 Dear old Needham High School,
 Thee we'll ever praise.

When in the future,
 We our life work have begun,
 Let truths we learned here
 Ever lead us on.

May our motto help us,
 To high aims may we be true,
 "Deeds not Words" our watchword
 All Life's journey through.

CHORUS — Dear old Needham High School,
 May our thoughts with thee e'er dwell;
 Dear old Needham High School,
 Now we say farewell.

Report of School Committee

The School Committee submit to the citizens of Needham a detailed financial report of the cost of the schools for the year 1912. The usual tables are also appended together with the report of the Superintendent of Schools showing the condition of our schools in general.

A comparison of the total cost of the schools the past year with the total cost of five years ago calls attention to the fact that the increased cost of our schools is greater than the increase in the number of pupils attending school. This is accounted for in the fact that we are now paying higher salaries to our teachers than ever before, and in the fact that the schools are better graded than ever before, and that the teachers are not called upon to have as large classes as formerly. The cost of maintenance has also increased. Fuel is higher. The heating and ventilating systems are expensive in operation and in every department the increased cost is noticeable. The committee have exercised care in the disbursements, and have sought to secure a full return for the money expended. We have felt that the town was willing to provide ample money provided a full return was made for the money expended. To this end more experienced teachers have been employed, a graded salary list adopted, and an effort made to make our teaching force more permanent. We realize the importance of having teachers who have an intimate acquaintance with the people and their pupils. The advantage of knowing conditions in the homes and of enjoying the confidence of the parents cannot be over estimated. This plan has shown good results. The parents are more interested in our schools than heretofore and we feel confident that the awakened interest will continue and increase. The importance of having the parents know just what is being done in our schools is being emphasized and this feature will be continued.

The need of thoroughness in school work is being urged upon our scholars. Concentration is being required. More prompt and cheerful obedience encouraged. The importance of a thorough knowledge of fundamentals impressed upon the pupils, and the awakening of ambition, and the inspiration to achieve, is made a part of the general plan. The result of our efforts along these lines is gratifying. The school spirit is good, the work of our teachers greatly improved, the work of the scholars more satisfactory, and a quiet seriousness in making school work a business, more noticeable.

This plan should be continued to the end that our schools shall enjoy the distinction of thorough scholarship and accuracy. Not so much the idea of how broad a field is covered, but how well. If our schools continue along these lines we feel sure that we shall show satisfactory work.

Our school buildings are, generally speaking, in good condition. The Kimball school, when necessary changes are made, and the building used wholly for the grammar grades, will meet our requirements for a considerable time.

In regard to new school buildings, the committee suggests that the town appoint a committee to secure plans and estimates for the erection of a primary school to be placed on the May street end of Greene Field, this committee to make such recommendation as to size and design of the building as they deem desirable, and to report at the town meeting to be held in January 1914. By having this preliminary work attended to this coming year, the building can be built and ready for occupancy in September 1914.

According to the estimates given in the superintendent's report the sum of $46,500 is required to be appropriated for the support of the schools the current year.

SUSAN W. FISKE,
HORACE A. CARTER.

TOWN OF NEEDHAM

Twenty-third Annual Report

OF THE

WATER COMMISSIONERS

FOR THE YEAR 1912

NEEDHAM
THE CHRONICLE PRESS
1913

Twenty-third Annual Report of the Water Commissioners

To the Inhabitants of the Town of Needham, Massachusetts:

The Water Commissioners herewith submit their twenty-third annual report for the year ending December 31, 1912.

At the annual town meeting in March, Mr. Albert E. Collishaw was elected water commissioner for a term of three years.

The board organized by electing Mr. Edmund G. Pond chairman, and appointing George A. Adams clerk.

Extensions.

The following extensions have been made during the year:

Chestnut street—37.0 feet and hydrant set in Chestnut Court.

Fair View Road—from Marked Tree road to house of H. M. Harding, 258.0 feet.

High Rock street—from Marked Tree road to property of Harriet A. Boyden, 347.5 feet.

Marked Tree road—from extension of 1910 to High Rock street, 105.7 feet.

Mellen street—from extension of 1893 to the house of George Khoury, 172.5 feet.

Increasing and Protecting the Water Supply.

The time has come when it is necessary not only to plan for the present, but for the future growth of the town.

The present plant was admirably planned and constructed for the period for which it was designed and has served its purpose for over twenty years, but the growth of the town has been and is so rapid that it seems absolutely necessary to increase the present system.

In planning for the future water supply it is important that we should obtain if possible the probable growth of the town, and to do this, we have taken the growth for the last 10 years, as a basis on which to estimate, and find that we must plan for a town of at least 9,000 inhabitants in the next 20 or 25 years.

The plan we propose to work out is to add to the present system, but in such proportions that it will take care of the town for the future, so that at any time the proposed system should prove inadequate the supply can be increased by adding to rather than a general rebuilding. To do this means the expenditure of a large sum of money.

The proposition is to install a $1\frac{1}{2}$ million gallon pump of the horizontal cross compound type to do the major part of the pumping, also connecting the two present pumps as an auxiliary plant to use in case of accident to the proposed new one. To do this means building quite a large addition to the pumping station, this will be done with the plan in view, that when the proposed $1\frac{1}{2}$ million gallon pump is not capable of doing the work economically, the two present pumps can be removed, and a $2\frac{1}{2}$ or 3 million gallon pump installed in their places, this large pump to do the greater part of the pumping, using the $1\frac{1}{2}$ million gallon pump as an auxiliary.

The wells will probably supply these pumps for a number of years with the exception of 2 or 3 months in each year, so it seems, not only advisable but necessary to dig another well nearer the river, and we have negotiated for the land between the pumping station and the river, for this purpose, and to get a right of way to the river, should it seem advisable to pump from a filter gallery in that locality to the basin to maintain the water table in a dry season.

With a $1\frac{1}{2}$ million gallon pump it will be necessary either to run with two shifts a day, or increase the standpipe capacity. The latter plan seems the most feasible thing to do, as the present standpipe holds only 300,000 gallons while the maximum day's pumping for this year was 642,600 gallons and the minimum 275,400 gallons with an average daily pumping of 355,575 gallons, so it can be readily seen that the town does not get the storage capacity for a reserved supply, but with an additional standpipe capacity of from 1 to 2 maximum day's pumping, the work could be done in one shift, with a much less variation of pressure during the 24 hours of the day, and give much better results, both in domestic and fire service.

In our reports of 1909 and 1910 the matter of planting trees on the "Colburn Farm" water works land was alluded to as follows:

"This subject was taken up with the Massachusetts Forest Service in August and we were advised to postpone action until spring. The plan under consideration is to plant seedlings of different varieties to which the soil is suitable, leaving only spaces for roadways according to a plan which has been prepared. The seedlings are inexpensive, costing from $4 to $8 a thousand, and if they can withstand the ravages of the winter storms and the summer fires, should in a few years, not only beautify the landscape but also be an ever increasing factor in protecting and increasing our water supply."

In 1910 this matter was taken up and five thousand white pine seedlings were purchased and set out on the east side of the railroad extending from Great Plain avenue to Park avenue bridge. These seedlings were set out as an experiment and after two years we find 858 small trees left or only 17% of the total number planted, so it seems advisable in the future to set out "transplants" rather than seedlings, and it is our plan to purchase a sufficient number of them the same size as those now growing to fill in the vacant places and use good stocky transplants for all future work.

Bonds.

Bonds to the amount of $6,500 have matured and been paid during the year, as provided by Chapter 259 of the Acts of 1900, and in accordance with a vote of the town passed June 28, 1900. The outstanding bonds mature as follows:

TOWN OF NEEDHAM

ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

BOARD OF ASSESSORS

FOR THE YEAR 1912

NEEDHAM
THE CHRONICLE PRESS
1913

Assessors' Report

In submitting our report for the year 1912 we are pleased to note the steady gain and prosperity of our town.

There is a matter to which we would call your attention at this time, which should be acted upon at the annual meeting in March, and that is the inadequate equipment of the assessor's department regarding plans and records for a town of this size. In a great many towns in this state they have adopted what is known as the "Block System" and are making an appropriation each year for that purpose. In all cases where this system has been introduced good results have been obtained and we have every reason to believe that such would be the case here. We believe this is of vital importance to the town, and shall ask for a small appropriation this year to begin this work.
